

1. One such ship is the 'Kalra's' that houses Maharashtra's latest and most swanky Viraj Hotel and Casino. The Kalra's stands tall in the Mandovi river and the only access to the ship is via motorboats that ferry people to and fro.

2. On the fateful night of January 2nd 2017, the Viraj was hosting the town's most coveted party, however, only a select few knew that within the Viraj was a gathering of people that was even more exclusive. Diamond, Montecieto's high stakes floor was that day playing host to a Poker invitational that came with a buy-in of 50 lac Rupees. Invitations to this exclusive event were restricted to the Casino's Black Card holders and entry was limited to the first forty guests who committed to the buy-in. The buy-in was to be in cash with the winner taking all. In addition to these players the only other people allowed access to Diamond were select employees, guests of Ms. Shefali, CEO and President of the Viraj and Maj. (Retd.) J.S. Rana, Head of Operations (Security).

3. By about 8 P.M. on the 2nd night, the buy-in formalities were complete and the money was shifted to Diamond's special vault that was located on the same floor. Post 11 pm while revelries were in progress, the Diamond vault was breached by 4 men dressed in fine suits. The money inside the vault was put into 8 waterproof bags, but just as these men were about to make an exit, the alarm was triggered. They ran towards the deck and threw the bags overboard into a motorboat that was waiting for them. In order to make their escape the men were carrying ropes to rappel down to the getaway boat. Two men got away, while the others awaited their turn to rappel down. At this moment the Casino's Chief Security Officer, Mohan Rai ordered them to stop, a command they were happy to disobey. To further aid in their escape they took an unsuspecting guest of the Casino, who was out on the deck for a smoke, hostage. Michael fired a warning shot in the air with his casino issue, Glock .38 handgun. When they still didn't stop or let the hostage go, he fired at one man's knee and subdued him. While this was happening, Maj. (Retd.) J.S. Rana reached the spot and shot dead the other man, with a Blaser Scott model 60 .38 revolver.

4. Unfortunately for Ms. Shefali the two remaining men made a successful getaway with 12 Crore rupees. The police reached the Kalra's at 12:15 am and proceeded to register an F.I.R. under Section 395 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and Sections 25 & 27 of the Arms Act, 1959. Post investigation and submission of the report under Section 173 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973, the learned Magistrate found that the case is exclusively triable by the Court of Sessions and therefore after following due procedure committed the case to the said Court.

"The Moneteceito was playing host to the city's biggest party and at the Diamond, we were also hosting a Black Card Invitational that was restricted only to our most esteemed guests. The buy-in to this tournament was Rs. 50 Lakh, and the winner would have walked away with Rs. 18 Crore, with the Casino taking a 10% commission. Once the buy-in was complete, we moved all the money to the Diamond' special vault that is located on the same floor. We didn't move the money to the main vault as Maj. Rana thought that it won't be a good idea. The event was going on as per schedule, and I was feeling pretty good about the evening. However, at around 11:30-11:45 pm I was informed by my security officer that there had been firing aboard the Kalra's, and he whisked me away to safety. Maj. Rana then informed me that we've had a break in, and some money from Diamond' vault has disappeared. I don't know how this could have possibly happened, Maj. Rana told me that we have the most secure vault in all the country and that it was virtually impenetrable. I don't have the technical details about it, but you can ask Maj. Rana. He also told me that he had to shoot one of the thieves as he was escaping, and that Michael has also shot another thief in the leg. I recognise Bhaskaranand as the injured person. He used to be an employee here at the Viraj, infact he is the one who helped setup the security system. I wonder what Michael must have felt on seeing him, after all he was Mohan's friend and I only hired him on his personal recommendation".

STATEMENT OF WITNESSES

(Statements under Section 161 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Code, 1973)

Persons examined:

1. Ms. Shefali
2. Mr. Mohan Rai
3. Maj. (Retd) J. S. Rana
4. Ms. Zareen Malik
5. Mr. Shekhar Subramaniyam
6. Mr. Bhaskaranand

1. Ms. Shefali d/o Mr. V.K. Gujral, aged about 33 years

Today is the first anniversary of the Viraj Hotel and Casino, and in addition to it I also own the 'Pharaoh', which is housed on a ship smaller than the Kalra's. That property has also been running successfully for the last five years without incident. With the Viraj we wanted to bring the glitz and glamour of Vegas to India and I spared no cost in making it the best. Within six months of its launch, it had become the most coveted and sought after place for the discerning. The security systems at the Viraj were truly world class and we had taken the best possible precautionary measures to avoid any incident and I had special men on guard. New Years' eve is always a high activity time for any hotel or casino in Maharashtra and we are the Viraj! Diamond is the high stakes floor at the Viraj and it was playing host to an exclusive tournament. In addition to the players, only a few people had access, some members of the staff, and guests of Maj. Rana and myself. Maj. Rana can make details of the guests and employees available to you as he had the final call on who was allowed to enter. I along with a few of my friends was enjoying the evening, when I was suddenly informed that there had been firing on the ship and I was frisked to safety by my personal bodyguard. I was thereafter informed that Michael had caught one of the thieves and shot him on his leg and Maj. Rana had shot dead another. However, despite all their efforts they could not salvage any of the bags containing the money. Even though the Casino is insured but we have faced a great hit both financially and to our reputation. Everything said and done, there is one thing that has deeply disturbed me – a man has died on my ship and I wonder if Maj. Rana could have just shot him in the leg like Michael. But perhaps Mohan didn't shoot to kill because he saw a friend in Bhaskar. I don't know who to trust.

2. Mr. Mohan Rai, S/o Mr. jai, aged about 47 years

I work as the Chief Security Officer at the Viraj and take great pride in my work. Talking of the fateful day, preparations for the 31st night are always intense and gruesome. Nothing can be left to chance and all this needs to be carried out without security becoming a visible distraction for the guests. On the 31st night, Maj. Rana was in charge of the security inside the Diamond and I was to oversee the security over the other parts of the Casino. Since we were using Diamond' vault for the first time in months, Maj. Rana commissioned a special force comprised exclusively of men he picked, so much so that even I did not have the profiles of men stationed at the Diamond.

The guest list was scrutinized and approved by Maj. Rana himself and further to prevent any mishap, Maj. Rana was making special rounds every fifteen minutes. At about 10:55 p.m. there was some chatter on the intercom about some unidentified men walking towards the vault, but the Diamond team told us that it was only a few guests who had lost their way. A few minutes later there was again chatter on the intercom that 4 men with large black bags were seen running to the deck. I immediately climbed one floor and ran towards the deck where I saw four men in suits throwing bags down from the ship. Two of them had started climbing down using the ropes, I immediately shouted and tried to stop them from running but they took one guest as hostage to aid in their escape. I was able to shoot the thief with the hostage on the leg, run towards him, overpower him and free the hostage. In the meanwhile, I heard firing and when I turned and saw what was happening, Maj. Rana had shot the other thief in the head and he was walking towards me with his gun pointing at the one I was holding down. For a second I thought he was going to shoot him as well, but I immediately rolled over and shouted that I had him under my control and that we needed to keep him alive to question him. I don't know why Maj. Rana was hell bent on killing all of them. I wonder...!

3. Maj. (Retd) J. S. Rana s/o Mr. Ranjit Singh Rana, aged about 49 years.

I am Viraj's Head of Operations (Security) and I take care of the entire security apparatus of this lovely property. However, today is a somber day and one I would like to forget as soon as possible. Mohan Rai is my Chief Security Officer and he is the person responsible for control over access to both the Casino's vaults. The Diamond' vault is located on the same floor, while our bigger main vault is located on the first floor. Both these vaults are state of the art and can be controlled and monitored by a special remote that me, Mohan and Ms. Shefali have. That way, at all times there are at least three people who can immediately take action if something happens. I don't know how Michael has let this terrible heist happen, but I assure you of my full cooperation in this investigation.

Another thing that has been killing me is that I shot at a man today. You know I was in the Army and we fought wars; wars which required one to make sacrifices, but let me tell you one thing – witnessing death doesn't get any easier, doesn't matter whether you kill or someone else pulls the trigger. But a man's got to do what a man's got to do and that man was a grave threat and I had to take action. Coming to the one you have in custody - Bhaskaranand. He used to be an employee of the Viraj who was hired on Mohan's recommendation. The bloody scoundrel knew everything about us. I never liked him and have always had a bad feeling about him. That is why I fired him 3 months back. I even had to find a flimsy excuse to let him go. Who knew he was plotting this all along.

I really feel bad for Ms. Shefali, I know she doesn't like admitting this publically, but 'Pharaoh' hasn't been doing well, and she has been under a lot of pressure lately. Even for building the Viraj she picked up considerable money from the market, and those installments have started piling up.... and now this has happened. Thankfully there is insurance. Insurance money..... no no, that can't be, she couldn't, actually won't... no way. Forget I said anything about her troubles. She's a really nice person.

4. Zareen Malik d/o Sh. Salim Malik, aged about 26 years.

On the fateful night of the 2nd, I had come to the Viraj with my boyfriend, Nitin Mittal. We came to this place because they were supposed to have the best entertainment in all of Maharashtra, with exotic dancers from abroad, fireworks, famous singers, DJs and what not. But to my dismay, instead of attending any one of these spectacular performances, my boyfriend was more interested in gambling. So after a while I got bored of drinking, and came to the deck for some fresh air. It was nearing 12' o'clock so I didn't want to stay there for a long period, lest I miss the special moment. But just as I was about to leave, I saw four men run onto the deck. They were carrying large bags. I became suspicious as I thought that one of them was holding a gun. They immediately threw the bags overboard and started to tie two pieces of rope to the railing. At that time I heard someone running up the stairs. I sensed something was wrong and backed away. Suddenly I heard a gun shot and one of the men in the suits went down. I ducked for cover while trying to keep an eye on what was happening. Soon there were three more shots fired and the second man also went down. I was scared for my life and I ran towards the opposite direction.

5. Shekhar Subramaniam s/o Mr. P. S. Subramaniam, aged about 28 years.

Sometime around 11 o'clock I was out on the deck for a smoke. When I gamble too much, I need a drag or two as it helps calm me down. I've been trying to quit, but that day I really needed to light up. I was standing on the deck by the railing, looking at the water while listening to Led Zeppelin on my iPod. There was hardly anyone there so it was nice and peaceful and I was standing there mulling over the past 12 months of my life and visualizing the opportunities and challenges that 2017 would bring. I saw another man dressed in a suit grappling with the rope. Suddenly there was an extremely loud shot and the man fell. I saw Maj. Rana standing over his body. Simultaneously one man got hold of my arm and pulled me towards him. I didn't know what was happening, so I turned around to see what his problem was. But instead of talking, the man hit me on the face multiple times and put me in front of him as if I was a human shield. I suddenly saw a man who I now know to be Michael standing in front of us with his gun drawn. As soon as my captor saw him, he had a weird reaction, it was almost as if he relaxed. I took advantage of this and was able to get away. Michael rushed towards him and shouted something. I could only catch bits and pieces. He was saying 'Don't worry.....' and then I heard the words '..... won't kill....'. Maj. Rana was running towards Michael with his gun pointed at my former captor. After this I left as soon as I could.

I came to the deck for a smoke that would calm me down, but that one cigarette gave me the scariest time of my life. I have promised myself that I will quit smoking now, for sure. Those shots really shook me up and for a little while I couldn't even piece the sequence of events together, but I am really proud of the way I held up later. I can now see myself giving TV interviews, and who knows may be I'll even write a book someday.

6 Bhaskaranand@ Sarkar s/o Mr. Raj Kumar Sanyal, aged about 32 years.

I do not wish to make a statement at this point. I want my lawyer.

ANNEXURE – 8

STATEMENT OF BHASKARANAND @ SARKAR

Bhaskaranand @ Sarkar has since turned state's evidence and confessed to the crime before the learned Magistrate. The statement recorded before the Magistrate on 04.02.13 is as follows:

I have been a part of certain criminal activities that have taken place aboard the Kalra's, and at this juncture I have no choice but to plead guilty to all charges, as I fear for my life. Maj. J.S. Rana has already killed one of our partners and now he is after my life. I have been receiving threats since the time I have been in custody, and I fear that if I am not in police custody, he will kill me so that I don't make any statements against him. He would have already killed me, had it not been for the CSO who stopped him.

This operation was planned 2 months ago. Maj. Rana was thinking of early retirement, just like the kind he had taken from the Army. He had approached Brij Gopal @ Babaji with the idea of robbing the Diamond vault on the 31st night as he knew there would be a lot of money in the Diamond vault on that night. He was helping plan some sort of special event. Babaji is my mentor and he has taught me everything I know about the world of vaults and high security surveillance. He was a master, it was as if he could walk through walls without a soul coming to know. Perhaps that's why Maj. Rana had approached him. I do not know of any safe that Babaji couldn't devise a way of breaching, and Maj. Rana had said that the smaller Diamond vault should be child's play for Babaji given the right tools.

This was going to be a five man job, with Maj. Rana providing support from the inside. My, Babaji, Kesu Firangi and Bhiku Matre's were to be on the guest list, and we were told that we would have no problem entering the Viraj. Pappu Chote was supposed to take us to the Kalra's in a motor boat, and wait for us while we robbed the Casino. We were supposed to rappel down from the deck right into the motor boat and make our exit. Babaji had told me that we would hit the vault as soon as the security guards would change as the guards posted post 11:30 pm were supposed to be taken care of. He was going to keep half of what we stole and the other half was to be divided equally among us, Babaji was a very fair man that way. Maj. Rana had given us special single seal bags with trackers so that he would be able to track the money all the time. The special seal was to ensure that we wouldn't be able to open the bags without him, as if that could spot Babaji. But anyway, if that made him feel safe.. Everything went according to plan; the vault had even more money than we could have hoped for. So much so that we couldn't even put all of it in the bags. Just as we were about to rappel down after Kesu and Bhiku, Michael reached the deck. Babaji told me to grab a hostage while we waited for Maj. Rana to come save us. When Maj. Rana arrived, I was so happy. I thought we would be saved. But to my utter horror he spoke to Babaji for two seconds and all of a sudden shot him right in the face. I didn't know what was happening and then I realised it was game over for me. Babaji must have told him that if he didn't save us, he would reveal his role in the entire operation and Rana shot him to silence him forever. Immediately after shooting Babaji he turned on me, but fortunately Michael was over me and he stopped Maj. Rana from killing me. I now fear from my life.

Read over and accepted.

14. Result of Laboratory Analysis: PMR, MLR and Ballistic Report attached separately.

15. Brief facts of the Case:

On the night of the 2nd, a report was received that guns had been fired aboard the Kalra's and that a possible dacoity had taken place. A team was immediately dispatched. One person, identified as Brij Gopal @ Babaji had been shot dead, whereas another identified as Bhaskaranand @ Sarkar, had a bullet injury on the leg. Based on initial investigations, it was concluded that both these persons along with three others later named as Kesu Firangi, Bhiku Matre and Pappu Chote were involved in the dacoity. Various statements recorded, especially that of Bhaskaranand @ Sarkar, who has confessed to the crime, make the manner in which the events unfolded absolutely clear. On that night the Viraj, in addition to a regular party, was hosting a private event on the Diamond floor, entry to which was restricted. This tournament involved a buy-in, so the cash so collected was stowed in the Diamond safe. Maj. Rana is the Head of Operations (Security), and therefore he has access to the security equipment including the safe via remote, and is also privy to information the movement of the guards. He was also in charge of who got entry into the exclusive Diamond event. Filled with greed, he had hatched a plan along with Brij Gopal @ Babaji to rob his own Casino. Maj. Rana was instrumental in getting the names of Brij Gopal @ Babaji, Bhaskaranand @ Sarkar, Kesu Firangi and Bhiku Matre on the guest list so that they would have access to the Diamond floor. He was also instrumental in providing assistance to them in breaking into the safe and getting them a safe escape route. Things got out of hand when the Casino's CSO reached the deck while these dacoits were making their escape and shot Sarkar in the knee after duly firing a warning shot in the process rescuing a hostage. Various statements and the post mortem report shows that Maj. Rana on the other hand, without giving any warning killed Brij Gopal @ Babaji by shooting at him from point blank range. It was an execution style killing that shows that Maj. Rana's intention was not to catch him, but to silence him forever, lest he reveals his involvement in the crime. Further, he even tried to shoot Bhaskaranand @ Sarkar but Mohan Raigot in the way and stopped him.

By confessing to the crime Bhaskaranand @ Sarkar is gaining nothing, and as such his testimony is corroborated by the medical reports as well as the forensic examination. Further, he has no motive to needlessly implicate Maj. Rana. This being the position, a clear of commission of unlawful offences under Sections 396/302 of the IPC, and Sections 25, 27 of the Arms Act is made out against Maj. Rana.

Note: A separate chargesheet is being filed against Bhaskaranand @ Sarkar, Kesu Firangi, Bhiku Matre and Pappu Chote. The later three are untraced at this juncture and their whereabouts are not known.
